

Young Mausoleum

A Gothic Revival mausoleum built of brown sandstone with Portland stone dressings and a slate fishscale roof. The wooden door is treated like a plate traceried window, with two cusped lancets and a quatrefoil in the head. These openings are filled with stained glass partially protected by decorative bronze grilles. There are also three stained glass windows in the rear wall, one of which is broken.

Hammersmith Cemetery
Margravine Road
Hammersmith
W6 8HJ

Scan for Google Maps Link

Architects

Not known

Year Built

1884

Style

Gothic Revival

Listing

Grade II (England and Wales)

Condition

Good. Some stonework missing from rear edge of roof, otherwise good (2002).

History

This mausoleum was erected by G W and M J Young following the death of their son, Frederick Harold Young (1865-1883). It contains a number of marble plaques commemorating members of the family, the most recent is dated 1956.

Sources

Photos

Location

SatNav Co-ordinates: 51.4919665203, -0.222480667