

Kenyon Mausoleum

Although the exterior has a Gothic doorway and windows, the interior, with its domed ceiling and barrel vaults to either end, is classical in form. It is built of knapped flint with stone dressings and the windows have some stained glass.

North Court
Brandon
Suffolk
IP27 0SF
England

Scan for Google Maps Link

Architects

Not known

Year Built

1830

Style

Gothic Revival

Listing

--

Condition

Much overgrown but apparently still sound (2008).

History

The mausoleum was built by Julia Ann Kenyon to house the remains of her husband, Captain J P M Kenyon, a veteran of Waterloo. It also contains her mortal remains and those of another, unidentified, person.

Sources

Information from Dr James Bettley (July 2008)

Photos

Location

SatNav Co-ordinates: 52.4324399735, 0.5852422458