History

The mausoleum of Sir David Yule (1858-1927) a wealthy jute and cotton mill owner, who divided his time between visiting his mills in India and his English estate at Hanstead, Hertfordshire. He was knighted in 1922 with a baronetcy after King George V had visited his mills in Calcutta. Sir David returned to England in 1925 and spent the remainder of his years at Hanstead. At the time of his death, in 1928, he was reputed to be the richest man in the British Empire.
