

Kelman Mausoleum

Gable-fronted gothic-revival mausoleum having engaged corner buttresses constructed by Millward & Co (monumental masons). Central pointed-arched doorway to principal elevation flanked by inscription plaques. Cast-iron door with cusped detailing and relief cross.

Highgate West Cemetery
Swain's Lane
London
N6 6PJ

Architects

Year Built

1907

Style

Gothic Revival

Listing

--

Condition

History

James Anderson Kelman (d.1912) a solicitor, was best known for 'Kelman's Interest Tables' which listed the Scottish bank rates of interest from 1800. He had worked for the City of Glasgow Bank in Edinburgh but later moved to London where he lived in Highbury. He purchased the site of the mausoleum for £441 in 1905 and the first interment was that of his second wife Marie in July 1907, followed soon after by his son in September of that year. Strongly resembles the adjacent mausoleum of Carl Rosa.

Sources

Online Links

Friends of Highgate Cemetery

Photos

Location

SatNav Co-ordinates: 51.567089007844, -0.14690004730182019