

Ferrari Mausoleum

Among the otherwise more traditional funerary sculpture of St Patrick's Cemetery, the most unusual monument is the Ferrari Mausoleum, a small concrete, Brutalist-style structure with an attractive stained glass window.

St Patrick's Catholic Cemetery
Langthorne Road
Leytonstone
London
E11 4HL
England

Architects

Unknown

Year Built

1965

Style

--

Listing

--

Condition

Good (2023)

History

The mausoleum dates from 1965 and commemorates Lucia Ferrari, listed on the gravestone inside as 'Mamma adorabile'.

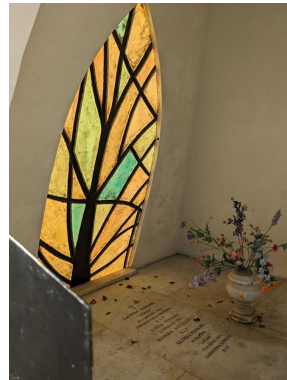

Sources

Ferrari Mausoleum - MODERNISM IN METRO-LAND (modernism-in-metroland.co.uk)[accessed 6/7/23]

The stories behind the statues at St Patrick's cemetery – Flickering Lamps [6/7/23]

Photos

Location

SatNav Co-ordinates: 51.557223704770976, -0.001747685746759411